Suzie Kemner – Suzie London. Dutch-Australian designer Suzie studied graphic design and multimedia in Australia. Since moving to London in 2000, Suzie has studied an introductory course in Fashion Design at Central St Martins College of Art & Design and later Professional Sewing Techniques at the London College of Fashion. Suzie London creates pieces of joy - clothing & accessories channelling 50s, 60s & 70s style with a fresh, modern edge. www.muswellhillcreatives.com/suzie-london

Elvira van Vredenburg. Elvira studied printed textile design at The Royal College of art. She then set up a printed studio selling her and other designers' work worldwide to fashion and furnishing companies. She has over 20 years experience in the design world selling to top designers in London, Paris, Milan, New York and Japan. For the past 7 years, Elvira has had an agent who sells her printed textile designs. She is now branching out to create her own range of greeting cards and gift wrap using her exclusive designs. www.muswellhillcreatives.com/elvira-van-vredenburg

Martina, Suzie and Elvira will be joining existing MHC members: Jess Albert Prints; Liz Harrap Horton Cards; Isabella Lepri Ceramics; Shelley Zetuni of Goldust Millinery; Samantha Sweet Glass; Tania McLaren of The Kitchen Table Florist; Michele Wyckoff Smith of Wyckoff Smith Jewellery and Rachel Orme Bags & Accessories.

Commenting on the new members, founder of Muswell Hill Creatives, Rachael Booth-Clibborn says: "Since the collective started in October 2014, we have held a twice yearly call for new members. It is always exciting to find new creative talent in Muswell Hill and the surrounding area and we are really thrilled to have Martina, Suzie and Elvira join the group. Their work fits beautifully with that of our existing members and we are very much looking forward to the energy these new members will bring to our happy and dynamic group of designer makers."
